Notice

It is being observed that the applicants are often addressing their application(s) under Right to information Act, 2005 to the Managing Director, DHBVN, Hisar or other officer(s) of the Nigam while they are not the appropriate Public Information Officer(s). Consequently, RTI application have to further down-marked/forwarded/transferred to the the appropriate Public Information Officer(s) of the Nigam that causes delay in supplying information and unnecessary public expenditure.

In light to above fafacts, it is informed to the general public to address RTI application(s) to the appropriate Public Information Officer(s) designated under DHBVN so the information could be supplied promptly and unnecessary public expenditure be avoided. In this regard, complete details in respect of all the designated Public Information Officer(s) and First Appellate Authorites are available on the Nigam Website www.dhbvn.org.
